

GUIDELINES FOR USE OF PREAMBLES

The following General Conditions and Preambles set forth the quality and performance expectations and specifications for the work of the project. Sections should be reviewed and implemented in this project. All Sections are included for information cross-reference; therefore, some Sections may not apply directly to this project.

This document is issued to the Architect for his use in preparing his Construction Documents. When used by the Architect, the term Interior Contractor in this document applies as defined in Section 00700 General Conditions paragraph 1.1.6.

This document is issued to the Purchasing Agent for his use in preparing pricing, securing bids and issuing purchase orders on behalf of the Owner. When used by the Purchasing Agent, the term Interior Contractor in this document applies as defined in Section 00700 General Conditions paragraph 1.1.6.

The following index includes symbols which may occur on drawings and specifications. These symbols are shown as a reference guide to indicate applicable Sections for the work.

This document is the 2017 edition with all rights copyrighted (c) 2017 by Muza Lab LTD.